June Gardening

This week in the Infant Class our Friend the Caterpillars have turned into beautiful butterflies. So this coming week we will be learning about the beautiful butterflies. We will be doing art projects along with learning the colors and how they fly. When going on walks we will try and see if we can spot any of them. We are also still working on our sign language in class.

This week the Toddler Two's Class will be exploring our own natural gardens and learning about growing plants. They may get a little muddy as they learn to dig, pot and find wild flowers. We will take nature walks to pick and count the dandelions.
